WHAT IS BIODANZA

•Biodanza, also known as “Biological Dance” or “Dance of life,” is a system of human development that combines music, movement, and authentic self-expression to promote personal growth, emotional healing, and connection with others. Created by Chilean psychologist Ronaldo Toro Araneda in the 1960s, Biodanza aims to enhance well-being by engaging participants in various forms of dance and movement within a supportive and nurturing environment.

Key Elements of Biodanza:

1- Music and Movement: Biodanza sessions involve carefully curated music that evokes different emotional states. Participants are encouraged to express themselves through spontaneous and natural movements, allowing the music to guide their dance.

2- Authentic Expression: Biodanza promotes the freedom to express one’s feelings and emotions through movement. Participants are encouraged to let go of inhibitions and connect with their true selves, fostering a sense of authenticity and self-acceptance.

3- Connection and Interaction: Biodanza is often practiced in groups, emphasizing connection with others. Partner and group exercises facilitate meaningful interactions, nurturing a sense of belonging and community.

4- Joy and Vitality: The practice emphasizes experiencing joy and pleasure through movement. Dancing with awareness can stimulate the release of endorphins and create a positive emotional state.

5- Integration of Emotions: Biodanza aims to integrate and harmonize emotional experiences. The dance sequences are designed to promote emotional balance, self-awareness, and the release of blocked or suppressed emotions. Embodiment: Biodanza encourages participants to become more attuned to their bodies and sensations, enhancing the connection between mind, body, and emotions.

6- Self-Esteem and Self-Confidence: As participants gain greater self-awareness and self-acceptance, their self-esteem and self-confidence often improve.

7- Health and Well-Being: Biodanza Sessions are typically led by trained facilitators who create a safe and non-judgmental space for participants to explore movement and emotions. Each session consists of carefully designed exercises, dances, and activities that encourage participants to explore various aspects of themselves and their relationships with others. The music selected for each exercise corresponds to specific themes, emotions, or qualities.

Benefits of Biodanza:

- Enhanced emotional well-being
- Increased self-awareness
- Improved body-mind connection
- Stress reduction
- Improved interpersonal relationships
- Boosted self-esteem and self-confidence
- Enhanced creativity and expression
- Promotion of joy and vitality

Overall, Biodanza Offers a Unique approach to personal development that integrates music, movement, and human connection to promote holistic well-being and a deeper understanding of oneself and others.

WHAT IS BUFO ALVARIUS (SAPITO)

The word Sapito comes from the word Sapo which means Toad. Sapito is an endearing term that means little toad.

The Sapito medicine comes from the toad Bufo Alvarius which is a Toad that lives in the Sonoran desert in the northern part of Mexico.

The toad's gland secretion is extracted and smoked for immediate experience which lasts anywhere between 15 and 25 min.

The main compound is 5MEO-DMT. Sapito medicine deals directly with the 7th (Sahasrara) chakra, unlike Ayahuasca which deals with your 6th (Ajna) Chakra. This is an experience of the subtle reality world which gives a clear understanding of who and what we are. It facilitates a transpersonal state that is very powerful and has the potential to show the participant a real and personal understanding of what resonates and what doesn't resonate with them. Many people who have tried this medicine, describe the experience as utterly sublime, a true meeting of Self and cosmic unity.

What is sure of everyone who experiences this medicine, is that what is experienced brings new vistas of clarity, potential, empowerment and strength to bring about the highly inspired visions received with this healing medicine. Furthermore, there is an energetic alignment that takes place, giving way to possible purge which then brings about lightness in the participants personality.

WHAT IS DESPACHO

In the world of sacred medicine integration, a “despacho andino” is a traditional ceremony practiced in the Andean regions of South America, like Peru, and Bolivia. It’s a special ritual conducted by spiritual leaders or shamans.

The purpose of a despacho is to create harmony and connection with nature, the spiritual world, and the universe.

People use it to express gratitude, seek blessings, find healing, and connect with sacred energies.

In a despacho, various symbolic items like coca leaves, flowers, grains, and colored paper are carefully arranged on a special cloth. During the ceremony, prayers and blessings are said, and the offering is usually burned or buried to send the intentions and blessings to the spiritual realm.

Despacho ceremonies are a way for people in the Andean culture to maintain a strong connection with nature and ask for guidance and healing from the spiritual forces they believe are present in their environment.

These ceremonies are an essential part of their spiritual and cultural practices, especially in the context of sacred medicine integration.

DIETA AND HEALTH PRECAUTIONS

THE DIETA IS A NECESSARY ELEMENT OF THE AYAHUASCA EXPERIENCE.

We suggest the following:

Avoid for 1 week before the first Ayahuasca-Corazon ceremony:

1. Any food containing spices, spicy peppers, fats, oil, salts and sugar, canned food, alcohol, red meat, pork meat and derivatives, and stimulants such as caffeine.
2. Any fermented food like: soy sauce, soy beans, paste/curd, beer, vermouth wine, aged-mouldy cheese.

Drink plenty of water during the dieta until the first ceremony begins. If you stick with a vegetarian-like diet, you will do great for your first ceremony.

Remember that whatever food you may take on the day of the ceremony will most certainly come out of your body what is known as La Purga. This doesn't necessarily have to happen as each body is different but it is a common occurrence.*

These are the brief guidelines and health reminders we provide. We suggest following the required dietary recommendations before, during, and after taking the plant medicine. We always endorse and support safety and responsibility when it comes to journeying with the shamanic vine of the soul.

We remind you that the responsibility of taking accurate and timely health precautions – along with seeking professional medical advice – is entirely at your discretion.*

- People affected by schizophrenia, bipolar disorder, other psychiatric/dissociative conditions, and people with chronic heart conditions such as severe high blood pressure should not take Sacred Medicine.
- People taking anti-depressant drugs like Prozac, Seroxat, Zoloft, Effexor, Paxil, Welbutrin (bupropion), or similar medications can take Sacred Medicine only once their treatment has been safely suspended or ended under medical supervision.
- Please discontinue the use of the following non-prescription drugs before and after your retreat if applicable: antihistamines, systemic vasoconstrictors or decongestants, both natural ephedrine and synthetic pseudo-ephedrine, drugs with high caffeine content, and phenylalanine. Amphetamine salts-based medication (brand name: Adderall, Ritalin, Vyvanse, Dexedrine) commonly used in the US & Canada to treat attention deficit hyperactivity disorder and narcolepsy are equally not compatible with plant medicine.
- Taking products like Clonazepam (brand names: Klonopin, Rivotril, Ravotril, Rivatril, Clonex, Paxam, or Kriadex), may weaken or completely antagonize or neutralize the visionary dimension of the Sacred Medicine healing experience. These are benzodiazepine drugs prescribed to treat seizures and panic disorder, and they have anxiolytic, anticonvulsant, muscle relaxant, and hypnotic properties,
- People affected by Addison's Disease must not take Sacred Medicine (or any other medication/medicine that would alter their hydro-electrolytic balance).

Any disclosure of your health status will be kept in the strictest confidentiality. We are just looking after you and want you to have a safe experience.

THE Q'ERO LINEAGE

WHO ARE THE Q'ERO?

The Q'ero people are the guardians of the Andes mountains in Peru. Their Community lives in region of Q'eros which is composed of bajo, medio and alto Q'ero.

The Q'ero were designated by the Inka (The Enlightened One) as the high priests or priestesses of the whole empire. The Inka himself followed the tradition of choosing the Q'ero High priests as spiritual counselors.

Out of all the different regions from the Inca empire, the Q'ero were considered to be the ones holding the highest spiritual truth, carrying humanity's origin story and wisdom for over 8000 years. This wisdom has been the means for humanity to fulfill the prophecy of the Eagle and the Condor.

We have the joy of carrying this Lineage's Wisdom and the honor of sharing this world of real magic with everyone ready to fulfill this prophecy in their lives.

You will experience authentic reverence for Mother Earth and every one of her elements.

This retreat offers you multiple initiations both into a personal relationship with Mother earth, Nina Taita (grandfather fire), and the Q'ero lineage itself through a Karpay Ceremony.
